

You go get Janet Jackson and whoever is responsible for that horrendous "act" during half time of the super bowl. Use our tax money wisely this time. I think you'll benefit the nation as a whole and especially my young children who I am embarrassed for and who saw that deplorable behavior.